LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

My name is Aaron Dickerson. I own and operate ALD Enterprises, LLC and Kitchens and Baths by Design in Morgantown, West Virginia. My loving and supportive wife, Angela, and I have two children, Noah and Avery. Family is in large part the reason why I got into the construction industry. I was raised in a family rich in the building trades, and I learned early on how important and rewarding the trades could be. After obtaining a B.S. in civil engineering, I worked for a short time for a commercial contractor before I was drawn to starting my own business.

I became involved with the Home Builders Association on a local level early in my career, in 2009. I was quickly afforded the opportunity to become a local board member and become active in committees. This led to my involvement on some state-level events and, ultimately, my participation on the state board.

Once I saw what the HBA had to offer to a beginning contractor, I wholeheartedly committed to becoming a contributing member of the association. From the beginning, I saw the importance of membership and getting involved. The family and connections that I have made during my time in the association have played a large part in the growth and success of my businesses.

As president, I want to continue to urge the importance of membership and the building of a professional family to support all members and businesses that make the Home Builders Association of West Virginia such an amazing trade association. I hope to be able to continue the strong line of leadership from my predecessors and help to continue to build the association.

Aaron L. Dickerson
President, HBAWW

LETTER FROM THE 2022 EXECUTIVE OFFICER

1967 - 2022

As you know, we lost HBAWV Executive Officer Regina Skeen on November 30th. At the time of her death, Regina had already prepared her letter to be included in this publication. To honor her memory, we wanted to share this final letter with you. Regina served our association faithfully for twelve years, and she will be missed for years to come.

The state HBA has been around 63 years, and I have been a part of it the last twelve. Over the years, the association has been referred to as the "West Virginia Home Builders, State HBA, and the Home Builders of West Virginia. I refer to it as "the family." We are a blended family; we each are business leaders in our field of expertise and bring to the kitchen table those experiences and ideas. We are adopting new members every day through the membership process. When you are working with your subs or counterparts, ask if they are members of the HBAWV. We are stronger together than not.

I'm reminded of a quote:

"Family should be the place where you can be your most complete self. Where you're accepted and appreciated, seen and valued, even in moments of disagreement. It should be your soft place to fall, the place where you're reminded that no matter what happens to you, in the face of your deepest challenges, you are loved." – Unknown

We were founded when a few friends got together and decided the building industry across the state should be represented as a whole. The members of the HBAWV are family, and we rely on the family. We defer to it and sacrifice for it because the family, not the individuals, are undefeated. As you read this, I will be gearing up for the 87th West Virginia Legislative session. As your lobbyist, I work every day to make our industry better through advocating for you.

Regina M. Skeen
Executive Officer/Lobbyist

LETTER FROM THE ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT

The National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) is one of the largest trade associations in the United States, representing the interests of home builders, developers, contractors, and associated businesses.

Our industry has provided us with great success over the past couple years, with an enormous growth in the housing market, which directly affects all of our members. Now, it seems things have started to slow down, with a pending recession, interest rates rising, and costs of goods increasing from the gas pump to the grocery store. In times like this, being a part of a network such as the HBA can really benefit our members, from granting leadership opportunities to partnerships with members doing business with fellow members.

Being a member of the HBA can provide you with great benefits and opportunities for yourself and your company.

The HBA is a very important resource for contractors, builders, and associate members. One of the benefits the HBA can offer is knowledge about new products, best business practices, and national resources. Members can also receive discounts on life and dental insurance and workers' compensation. The HBA provides networking opportunities with local, regional, and national tradespeople within our industry, as well as local and state government officials. The HBA also provides information on local, state, and national building codes, which directly impact our industry.

Our members are passionate about the construction industry. It is our industry; we own it, we thrive within it. It provides us with career opportunities and affordable housing for ourselves and our clients. Our local HBAs throughout the state are dedicated to promoting, protecting, and strengthening the building market and also to giving back to our communities.

Our History and Membership

Since it was founded in the early 1940s, NAHB has served as the voice of America's housing industry. We work to ensure that housing is a national priority and that all Americans have access to safe, decent, and affordable housing, whether they choose to buy a home or rent.

NAHB helps its members build communities. Each year, NAHB's members construct about 80% of the new homes built in the United States, both single-family and multifamily.

A Federation of more than 700 state and local associations, NAHB represents more than 140,000 members. About one-third are home builders and remodelers. The rest work in closely related specialties, such as sales and marketing, housing finance, and manufacturing and supplying building materials.
